Except as expressly stated otherwise, Plans shall automatically renew for subsequent one-month renewal periods, unless a Party gives the other Party written notice of non-renewal at least 30 days prior to the end of the then-current term. Upon renewal, CWS reserves the right to increase the Fees for Services by providing Customer written notice thereof (which notice may be provided by email) at least 30 days prior to the end of the then-current term.

6.3 Termination for Cause. Either party may terminate this Agreement for cause (i) upon 30 days' written notice to the other party of a material breach if such breach remains uncured at the expiration of such period; or (ii) immediately if the other party becomes the subject of a petition in bankruptcy or any other proceeding relating to insolvency, receivership, liquidation, or assignment for the benefit of creditors. In the event that CWS terminates this Agreement for cause, no refund shall be issued.

Upon termination of this Agreement or cancellation of a Plan for any reason, (i) Customer will immediately cease all use of the Services; (ii) Customer will have no further access to its Customer account provided by CWS; (iii) CWS will cease sending Customer any communications provided through the platform; and (iv) Customer will pay CWS all unpaid Fees owing to CWS. If Customer terminates this Agreement in accordance with Section 6.3, then without limiting any other remedies that may be available, Customer will pay any unpaid Fees covering the remainder of the term specified in the Plan after the date of termination. In no event will termination relieve Customer of its obligation to pay any amounts and Fees payable to CWS for the period prior to the date of termination and other obligations that survive termination of this Agreement.

6.6 No Refunds. In the event that Customer terminates this Agreement or cancels its Plan in accordance with section 4.3, CWS will not issue any refunds for fees already paid.

The sole remedy for downtime for Customers is in the form of service credits, calculated as the minutes of unplanned downtime during a calendar month (rounded to the nearest minute) divided by the number of minutes in that calendar month and multiplied by the Customer's monthly cost divided by the number of minutes in that calendar month. The remedies set out above are Customer's sole and exclusive remedy for issues related to System Availability.

No failure to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any right or remedy under this Agreement will be deemed to be a waiver of that right or remedy. The User-Agent information we receive may also include information such as device type (e.g., computer, tablet, mobile device), and/or date/time of visit. Similar to the collection of IP addresses, our websites also receive User-Agent information associated with your browser and type of device.
